

NO ANGELS

(L. Daniels, R. Mitra, Rankin, A. Seidl)

published by Edition HonxMusic/BMG Ufa, Universal Music Publishing

This is the night to remember the way you smile and shake your hair I should be feeling something there should be something in the air.

But there is only ashes in the secret place where we used to hide where once a fire was burning it's only cold inside

Chorus:

No angels beside me
No one to guide me through the dark the moonlight has failed me can't find my way back to your heart.
Those demons, they still haunt me have they won their wicked game?
How can I live with the shame
No angels

How can you ever forgive me can you understand my crime?
Or must I regret this moment till the end of time?
I hear the sound of a breaking heart as your dream of love comes crashing down it is the kiss of a devil by which forever I'm bound.

(Chorus)

I hate those tears in your eyes
Oh how I hate to see you blue but you better believe it:
Theres not a thing I can do!

(Chorus)

CHRISTINA

(L. Daniels, R. Mitra, Rankin, A. Seidl)

published by Edition HonxMusic/BMG Ufa, Universal Music Publishing

Christina, how I wish I'd never seen her
Christina, if she tells you, don't believe her Never met a girl like that until she walked into my life
She was so fast
She was too friendly to be real
I should have known this wonder couldn't last Life is just a phantasy of crazy dreams
She makes me wanna shake her and scream...

Christina, how I wish I'd never seen her
Christina, if she tells you, don't believe her
She took all by I had to give Never gave that much of me before She took the money, wrecked the car
And yet she's always coming back for more Will this nightmare ever end - I can't get out
This girl she makes me screaming out loud...

Christina, how I wish I'd never seen her
Christina, if she tells you don't believe her
Christina, she ain't nothing but a dreamer Christina, I know she's willing and she's eager Oh, oh
This girl she drives me crazy

Christina, how I wish I'd never seen her Don't touch her, don't touch her
Christina, if she tells you, don't believe her
You don't believe her why Christina, oh how I wish I'd never seen her Christina, I know she's willing and she's eager Oh oh, Christina, oh oh, Christina
She is a strange, strange girl
I'm tired
Christina
